BANK BUILDS STOCKING-ROOM FOR WOMEN PATRONS.

na City Institution Prepares New ecommodations for Its Women Clients.

EPUBLIC SPECIAL

Kaneas City, Mo., Aug. 19.—A "stocking-room" has been built and furnished in the National Bank of Commerce of this city. It is called the "stocking-room" because it is a place where a woman may go to be alone, while she takes from its hiding lace the money she wishes to deposit.

In the room are three mahogany stools about 12 inches high, with a leather cushion top on each. The stools are not intended for seats. There are chairs for that purpose. The stools are for women to put their feet upon while they are taking out

"Not many man will aver see the inside of the stocking-room," said Mr. Winants, vice president of the bank. "It is sacred to the use of our women clients. I have seen the necessity of it ever since I have been in the banking business.
"Half the women who come to the bank to deposit money carry it either in their stockings or in the bosom of their dress." The National Bank of Commerce is the first bank to have a "stocking-room."

LUBBOCK TO WED ONCE MORE.

War Governor of Texas to Marry Miss Lue Scott.

Dallan, Tex., Aug. 16.—There was quite a stir in social and political circles of Texas to-day when it was learned that former Governor F. B. Labbock is to be married next Wednesday. His bride to be is Miss Las Scott of Abiline, Tex.

Governor Lubbock left Austin to-day for Abiline. This will be the third time Governor Lubbock has been married. His last wife died one year ago this month. Governor Lubbock is in his ninetieth year, hale and hearty, and his bride is said to be quite young. He is quite wealthy.

Lubbock was the Confederate War Governor of Texas. He was captured with Jefferson Davis and John H. Reagan at the close of the war between the Exacs, served in the State Legislature following the reconstruction days and was for twenty years consecutively State Treasurer.

DENOUNCES JUDGE AT HUMBERT TRIAL.

Mme. Therese Dramatically Interrupts Proceedings in Great Fraud Case.

POSTPONES HER DISCLOSURES.

Asserts That the Crawford Brothers Exist Under Another Name -Declaration Moves Crowd to Derisive Laughter.

Paris, Aug. 10.—The Humbert trial to-day drew another large crowd to the Palais de Justice.

Mme. Therese Humbert continued to dominate the proceedings and created sev-eral scenes when the court attempted to examine the other members of the family. M. Bonnet, the presiding Judge, insisted on examining Frederic Humbert, her hus-band, but Mme. Therese Humbert said: "I demand to be heard. I am strong today and will explain where the millions

The Judge, however, proceeded with the examination of the other defendants despite Mme. Humbert's constant interrupions. During Judge Bonnet's searching interogation of her husband, Mme. Therese dramatically exclaimed:

erly showing by your manner that you are against us. You should disguise your feelings and try to appear impartial."

The spectators were greatly amused at this outburst. The Judge ordered Mme. Humbert to desist, but she again shouted: "You are continually showing your preju-dice."

COMPANY'S COLLAPSE. Frederic Humbert testified lengthily regarding the affairs of the Rente Viagree, the insurance concern which the Humberts started and in the crash of which thousands of poor people lost all their savings. He maintained that the operations were conducted in good faith and claimed that public prejudice aroused against the Hum-bert family brought about the failure of

He emphatically denied the Judge's statement that the rooms in the palatial resi-dence of the Humberts in the Avenue de la Grande Armee were connected by a system

Grande Armee were connected by a system of secret telephones. Mme. Therese here also excialmed:

"Lies! More lies!"

Frederic Humbert said he had devoted most of his time to art and poetry, leaving the entire financial operations to his wife. Romain D'Aurignac, Mme. Humbert's brother, testified that Mme. Therese commissioned him to trace the whereabouts of the Crawford brothers, Once, he said, when Henry Crawford visited their residence, he followed him to the Grand Hotel du Leuvre, in the Rue du Rivoli, and located the room occupied by Robert and Henry Crawford.

The former was sick in bed and refused to get up, but Henry came to the jour and after a brief conversation accepted copies of some legal papers. The Judge sought to bring out that Romain himself impersorated the Crawfords and instituted suits in their name. The defendant denied ever in peronating the Crawfords or writing the letters signed by the Crawfords.

Mme. Humbert here made another de clamatory statement, pretesting her com-plete innocence.

"I have tried to find the Crawfords and their millions," she said. "I have not suc-ceded in finding the money, but I have found the Crawfords. They have made a terrible revelation to me.
"I have told Maitre Labort all. He knows the real name of the Crawfords, for they do not call themselves by the name of Crawford.

"No one will suffer any loss. I will pay svery one. Perhaps the Crawfords may not svery but they exist. It is only their appear, but they exist. It is only their name that does not explain."

The Judge, interrupting her, asked:

"Then, where are the Crawfords?"

"If the Crawfords do not come here, I will give their name and that will suffice," repiled Mme. Therese, "I have already told Maitre Labori that when the witnesses have been heard and the hearing is concluded, I will tell all."

There was a profound silence in the courtroom during Mme. Humbert's declaration, but her final words, again putting off the promised disclosures, aroused derisive laughter. When the court intimated that the statement was vague, Maitre Labori answered:

"Du Men."

answered:
"But Mme. Humbert engages herself to speak at the close of the hearing."
The court then began the examination of the ninety witnesses called outside the family, which will occupy many days.
Mme. Therese's declarations that the Crawfords actually exist under another name is generally regarded as only another of her ruses to gain time.

CHURCH DISSENSION.

Doctor Auf der Heide to Relinquish Walnut Park Pastorate on December 31.

COMMITTEE REPORT ADOPTED.

Difference Between Factions That Caused Misunderstanding in Congregation Has Been Amicably Adjusted.

The controversy between factions of the congregation of the Walnut Park Presby-terian Church was settled yesterday morning by the action of the Presbytery of St. Louis, which decided to allow the Reverend Doctor F. Auf der Helde to remain in the pulpit of the church until December 31,

At that time Doctor Auf der Heide is to retire and the congregation will choose a new pastor.

The committee appointed by the Reverend M. V. P. Yeaman, the moderator of the presbytery, to inquire into the affairs of the Walnut Park Church consisted of the Reverend Doctor Samuel C. Palmer of the La-fayette Park Church, the Reverend Doctor David M. Skilling of the Webster Groves Church and Elder Perkins of the Cote Brilliante Church,

The committee report consisted of six counts, all but one of which were adopted. Doctor Auf der Heide is to retire at the end of the year and at once is to relinquish all temporal power of the church into the hands of regularly elected officers. The congregation is to relieve Doctor And der Heide of all responsibility connected with the finances and administration of the affairs of the church. There are to be monthly meetings under the charge of the presbytery's missionary, the Reverend Mr. Miller, and the effort to unite the opposing factions is to be made. Finally, the members of the congregation are admonished by the presbytery to remember with gratitude the seven years' pastorate of Doctor Auf der Heide. It is understood that the differences in the church came about through no dissatisfaction with the pastor, who is acceptable to all, but through the rivalry of the contending factions.

Doctor Auf der Heide organized the church seven years ago, and has given much time and money toward making it a successa. The membership is forty-eight. Doctor Auf der Heide about the first of the year heard of the differences among the members of his congregation, and volunteered to relinquish all authority when it should be demanded of thim. of the year and at once is to relinquish all of him.

This was taken by the officials of the church to be an absolute resignation. One misunderstanding led to another, until at the July meeting of the presbytery a petition from Walnut Park asking an investigation was presented. This petition was signed by eight persons, representing three families. At the investigation the committee con-ducted in the Walnut Park Church mem-bers of both parties pledged themselves to stand by the action of the presbytery, and it is believed that yesterday morning's ac-tion will settle the difficulties.

WILL HAVE DISPENSARY. Spiscopal Church House on Cass Ave-

The Reverend William Cochran, who is in charge of the Episcopal Church House, No. 1102 Cass avenue, expectes within a short time to have established in the insti-afternoons and evenings and on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings. The first of September Miss Fanale Bobb will become an assistant at the house, and it is hoped after that time to have it open on each day of the week.

St. Louis Will Begin September 15. in the Kirkwood Presbyterian Church. It is expected that the business of the session will be completed in two days.

The stated fail meeting is as important as the stated spring meeting, but usually does not last as long. The chief event of the coming session, it is understood, will be a series of lectures on "Missions" by the Reverend Doctor Bradt of Emporia, GERMAN M. E. CAMP MEETING.

St. Louis, Ballwin and St. Charles will commence to-morrow on the camp-meeting grounds one mile west of Clayton.

The meeting will be in charge of the Reverend Doctor George B. Addicks, Presiding Elder of the St. Louis German M. E. District, Ministers of the denomination will assist Doctor Addicks.

There will be a large tent for the services and a smaller one for the accommodation of persons wishing to take their meals at the camp meeting.

The Clayfon street car line runs near the grounds. It is expected that the largest attendance will be Sunday afternoon, when an English service will be conducted.

Church Establishment Postponed. The committee appointed by the Reverend M. V. P. Yeaman, moderator of the Pres-bytery of St. Louis, to establish a church at the Pope Avenue Mission reported yes-terday morning that it had made progress in its investigations, but had as yet not ar-rived at a decision. Consideration of the matter by the presbytery was postponed until the stated fall meeting in Kirkwood.
